Riverview Hospital Appoints Mary Valdez to New Leadership Role

Noblesville—Mary Valdez began a new role as vice president of Operations for Riverview Medical Group on December 9, 2013. In her position, Valdez is responsible for the daily operations, strategic management and process improvement for all Riverview Medical Group practices. This involves streamlining access to care and achieving financial efficiency. In addition, Valdez will ensure strategic targets are met by reengineering the revenue cycle.

Most recently, Valdez was the executive director of Revenue Cycle for Community Health Network. There, she guided revenue cycle operations for nearly 800 providers. Valdez has also served as regional practice director for Community Health Network, director of Operations for Women's Health Partnership, P.C. and reimbursement manager for Clarian Home Care.
