Riverview Health to Host Women's Heart Health: Uncorked Event

Westfield—Riverview Health will host Women's Heart Health: Uncorked on Tuesday, June 18 from 6-8 p.m. at Urban Vines Winery & Brewery, 303 E. 161st Street, Westfield.

Enjoy a girls' night out and leave the men at home while sipping on a free glass of red wine and learning about heart health from Ascension St. Vincent cardiologist Emily Ruden, MD. Dr. Ruden will educate, dispel myths and answer questions during this casual event hosted by Riverview Health and Ascension St. Vincent. The first 100 attendees will receive a free stainless steel stemless wine tumbler, and 20 lucky women will win a free heart scan from our raffle. A buffet of meat and cheese boards will be provided.

"We're really excited to bring a new event to women in the community," said Angie Bolinger, director of Cardiovascular, Infusion & Outpatient Clinical Services at Riverview Health. "Heart health is the top cause of death for women and men, so it's an important topic to talk about. But because we understand women are busy and health is often put on the back burner, we purposefully designed this event to be fun and engaging."

The event is free, but registration is required and may only be completed online. Register at riverview.org/uncorked.

About Riverview Health
