Riverview Hospital Foundation and Project Fit America Partner to Promote Health and Activity Among Children

Noblesville—Riverview Hospital Foundation and Project Fit America are partnering with two Noblesville elementary schools to help kids stay healthy and active. Together, they will host fun-filled kick-off events at both schools on September 12, 2013.

9:30-10:30 am – Promise Road Elementary, 14975 Promise Road
1-2 pm – Stony Creek Elementary, 1350 Greenfield Avenue

Riverview Hospital Foundation has partnered with Project Fit America to provide advanced outdoor and indoor fitness equipment, curriculum materials and teacher training to these schools in an effort to promote health and activity among students. Speakers include:

- Kelly Treinen, Promise Road Elementary principal
- Heidi Karst, Stony Creek Elementary principal
- Pat Fox, Riverview Hospital president and CEO

In addition, attendees will enjoy a fitness demonstration on the new Project Fit equipment and a visit from surprise guests. All are welcome to attend. An RSVP is not required.
